

Rhonda Bowling

Rhonda has worked with the Cumberland Valley District Health Department in Jackson County for the past 21 years.

Different positions she has held there have included Home Health Social Worker, HANDS Family Support Worker, and Health Educator.

Her job is currently split between HANDS and Health education, and along with this, she has headed up the implementation of Jackson County's Healthy Communities grant this past year.

She graduated with a B.S. degree from Cumberland College with a double major in Business Administration and Psychology.