

If you work with Infants and Toddlers, the place to be in August 2007
is Lexington, Kentucky!

Pre-Institute
August 22, 2007

(full-day sessions/limited seating)

Institute
August 23 - 24, 2007

Hyatt Regency Lexington
and Lexington Center

Featured Topics and Nationally Recognized Speakers for 2007:

- Social and Emotional Development
Dr. Tweety Yates – National Center for Social Emotional Foundations for Early Learning
- Consultative Model
Dr. Robin McWilliam – Vanderbilt Center for Child Development
- Early Literacy
Dr. Lori Connors-Tadros – National Child Care Information Center
- Reggio Inspired Practices
Dr. Rena Hallam – University of Tennessee – Knoxville
- Service Coordination
Dr. Gloria Harbin – University of North Carolina – Chapel Hill
- Implementing Therapies in Classrooms
Dr. Pat Snyder – Vanderbilt University
- Methamphetamines: Too Close To Home
Holly Hopper – University of Kentucky

This year's Institute will feature sessions held in Model Classrooms for both infants and toddlers.

Registration information will be available soon. Go to <http://www.ihdi.uky.edu/infanttoddler/> for more information; call (859) 257-9116 or E-Mail: terry.keys@uky.edu.

HDI . 126 Mineral Industries Building . University of Kentucky . Lexington, KY 40506 . FAX: (859) 257-2769