

Are there any limitations or exclusions on eligibility?

Any days that an individual resides in an institution only for the purposes of receiving short-term rehabilitation services shall not be included in the 90-day eligibility period. The Transition Coordinator will be happy to discuss these limitations with you.