

Proclamation

by

Steven L. Beshear
Governor

of the Commonwealth of Kentucky

To All To Whom These Presents Shall Come:

WHEREAS, A single community can inspire, equip and mobilize people to take action that changes the world; and

WHEREAS, Volunteers can connect with local community service opportunities and organizations that are at the center of social change, discovering their power to make a difference while recognizing that government by itself cannot solve all of our nation's social problems; and

WHEREAS, The giving of oneself in service to another empowers both the giver and the recipient as recently demonstrated by the countless volunteers who have helped to meet the basic needs of storm victims in Kentucky and worked to rebuild communities impacted by the tornadoes; and

WHEREAS, Kentucky's volunteers are a great treasure, vital to our future as a caring and productive society; and

WHEREAS, During this week all over the nation, service projects are performed and volunteers recognized for their commitment to service;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, STEVEN L. BESHEAR, Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, do hereby proclaim April 6-12, 2014 as in Kentucky, and urge my fellow citizens to volunteer in their respective communities, and through volunteering and recognizing those who serve, replace disconnection with understanding and compassion.

KENTUCKY VOLUNTEER WEEK

DONE AT THE CAPITOL, in the City of Frankfort the 4th day of April, in the year of Our Lord Two Thousand Fourteen and in the 222nd year of the Commonwealth.
