

What if I Have a Legal Guardian?

If you have a legal guardian, they must be supportive of the transition and make the decision about the transition. The legal guardian will also:

- be involved in the program education
- provide informed consent
- be involved in the transition process from participating in the development of the transition plan to implementing the plan
- provide support after transition