

What about Co-Payments

Depending on your Medicaid category, you may have to make a small co-payment when you receive your medical care, but Medicaid will pay most or all of the bill. Your Medicaid card will show you whether you are required to make a co-payment. You cannot be denied service because you are not able to pay the co-payment. However, your provider may bill you for the co-payment amount. Doctors, hospitals or other health care providers enrolled in the Medicaid program must accept Medicaid as payment in full, except for co-payment amounts.
