

Happy Holidays from KCCVS!

December 2012

Greetings!

Best wishes for this holiday season to our fellow supporters of volunteerism and national service! One of the real joys this holiday season is the opportunity to say thank you and wish you the very best for the new year!

The Kentucky Commission on Community Volunteerism and Service wishes everyone "Happy Holidays" with a look back at our events in 2012.

Many of us struggle with finding just the right gifts for our friends and loved ones during the holidays. ReadyWV has some great gift ideas that not only help others get ready for emergency situations, but also say you care and want the m to be safe.

Christmas

"In today's world we are inundated with images of Christmas from the media. We are told that it is all about buying expensive gifts for each other. In today's challenging economic times it is a tragedy that parents spend way more than they can afford to try to please their children. The sad truth is that, "money can't buy you love." A holiday is about the time spent together with loved ones. It is about gifts that come from the heart, and it is the about the thousands of years of tradition that mark the holiday season."
