

How is Eligibility Kentucky Transitions Determined?

Once the individual and/or their legal guardian indicate an interest in the program, the individual must meet the following criteria:

- Must be in an institution for 90 consecutive days.
- Must meet existing Medicaid eligibility requirements
- Must be receiving services paid by Medicaid for at least the day prior to being transferred to the program.
- Must meet nursing facility level of care.