F 241	Continued From page 1 was to receive nail care on shower days (two times a week). A review of the nail care flow sheet for February and March, 2011 revealed documentation the nail care had been completed. An interview and observation, on 03/22/11 at 9:08 AM, revealed the resident sitting in the lobby at the nurse's desk. Resident #1's fingernails were long, jagged and partially painted with nail polish. There was a brownish discoloration underneath the fingernails. Resident A revealed during an interview that his/her nails had not been cut "in a long time" and he/she would like to have his/her fingernails cut because "they look bad". The resident folded his/her hands together. Interviews with Certified Nurse Aide (CNA) #2, on 03/22/11 at 10:20 AM, and CNA #8, on 03/22/11 at 10:45 AM, revealed fingernails were cut on shower days and the residents received a shower two times a week with a bed bath given on the other days. The nails were cleaned with each bath. An interview with Registered Nurse (RN) #3, on 03/22/11 at 10:55 AM, revealed the licensed staff were responsible for cutting fingernails of residents diagnosed with Diabetes Mellitus and the CNAs were to cut all other residents' fingernails on shower days. The fingernails were to be cleaned during bathing and as needed. An interview with the Director of Nursing (DDN), on 03/22/11 at 3:25 PM, revealed residents' fingernails should be trimmed and cleaned on the residents' shower days. The CNAs and licensed staff should be monitoring fingernails during their shift. She would expect nail care to be part of the care provided during the showers.	F 241	The Director of Nursing or designee will do observations of a random sample of ten residents per unit (two units) weekly for appropriate grooming and personal hygiene related to nail care. These observations will be documented on an internal audit form once a week for six weeks, then once every two weeks for two months, then once a month. Any issues that are found will be immediately corrected and reported to the Director of Nursing or designee. 4. The compliance for this process will be monitored through review of the audits by the Administrator or designee Monday through Friday and documented on the clinical meeting minutes. The result of this monitoring will be brought to the monthly Quality Assurance/Continuous Quality Indicator meetings. 5. The date of compliance is	3/30/2011
