Kentucky Perinatal Quality Collaborative

KyPQC LAUNCH

Churchill Downs, Louisville, KY October 22, 2019

Birthing Hosptials

46

In Kentucky

Hospital Attendees

36

78% of birthing hospitals attended KyPQC Launch

Live Births

50,788

2018

Births Represented

46,135

91% represented by birthing hospitals in attendance

Breakout Sessions Work Groups Round Tables

3

24

Obstetrics Group 144 (52% of registrants)

Neonatology Group 62

Data & Analytics Group

64

(23% of registrants)

Work Group Sessions | Themes | Needs

OB

Buy-in from patients & healthcare system
Education & implementation of opioid bundle
Enhanced & expanded postpartum care
Improved care accessibility, remove barriers
Health equity, diversify healthcare workforce

Neo

Communication, collaboration, data sharing Professional training & patient education Evidence-based practices Follow-up & home care

Follow-up & home care Resources & funding

Data

Concern for skilled human resources
EHR/EMR integration challenges
Need follow-up data one year postpartum
Linking mother/infant data
Enough time to collect, analyze, & report data

CEU Topics | Top 3 Themes

- AIM* Bundle discussions, expectations, implementation
- Inter-professional collaborative practice, improving teamwork
- Postpartum care, mental health

*Alliance for Innovation on Maternal Health

Evaluation Engagement

270 attendees emailed 91 responded

Yes, interested

Not interestedNo Response

Be Informed & Active

Work Group Interest

Obstetrics
Neonatology
Data & Analytics

No Selection

Work Group Interest Stay Informed Only

Obstetrics
Neonatology

Data & Analytics

Produced by the Kentucky Injury Prevention and Research Center, as bona fide agent to the Kentucky Department for Public Health, and supported by the Cooperative Agreement number 1 NU17CE924971-01-00, funded by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC). Its contents are solely the responsibility of the authors and do not necessarily represent the official views of the CDC or the Cabinet for Health and Human Services.

